RULES FOR USE OF CLIMBING CENTER EUROPE

Only adults who have declared that they are aware of the risks arising from visiting the Center are admitted to the climbing center.

If the visitor is a minor, the declaration must be signed by a parent/guardian/adult entrusted with the care of the minor.

Persons under the age of 14 may only use the facilities within the framework of organized training and courses or if they are accompanied by their parents, guardians or coaches with established climbing experience.

Visitors to the Center can use the separate areas of the hall (climbing with automatic belay systems; climbing on the upper belay and climbing on the lower belay) only if they have the relevant climbing experience.

The climbing experience of the visitor is ascertained by an employee of the hall.

It is forbidden to bring into the hall any intoxicants and alcohol, as well as drinks and food.

Visitors are responsible for protecting their belongings and valuables.

The climbing center offers espadrilles, seats, carabiners and safety devices. This equipment is not allowed to be taken out of the hall.

Customers who use their own equipment in the hall are responsible for its reliability and compliance with applicable standards.

Customers of "Climbing Center EUROPE - DRUVBA" and BADMINTON HALL EUROPE - DRUJBA can use the facilities only with clean sports shoes/sneakers or espadrilles.

The presence of jewelry while climbing can contribute to additional injuries. We advise you to take them off before training.

Placing personal items on the mats is not permitted.

Smoking in the climbing center is prohibited.

Center staff have the right to remove any climber or visitor to the Center if their behavior poses a risk to themselves and others.

Hall staff may require compliance with additional rules to ensure safety.

"Climbing CENTER EUROPE - DRUJBA" and "BADMINTON HALL EUROPE - DRUJBA" are not responsible for lost or stolen items and valuables.

For additional information, contact the staff of "Climbing CENTER EUROPE - DRUJBA" and "BADMINTON HALL EUROPE - DRUJBA".

GOOD PRACTICES WHEN VISITING THE CLIMBING CENTER

The climber who is on the wall first and above you has the right of way.

Be aware of your surroundings, downtown areas and climbers. Do not walk or stand under a wall that is currently in use. Do not pass between the bailer and the wall. Do not step on the ropes.

Never climb under another climber. Always leave enough room for the climber.

Empty your pockets before climbing. Remove all jewelry from you.

Do not stand or sit in close proximity to boulders or where someone could fall on you.

If you have already climbed a route, back off and give someone else a chance to climb it.

If you must jump, look below you to see if the area is clear. This would prevent a number of accidents and injuries.

Keep children safe and do not let them roam freely in the hall by themselves.

SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS WHEN VISITING THE CLIMBING ROOM

The center offers an artificially created climbing environment where the risk of injury and contusion is minimized. However, climbing in the Center is not 100% safe and involves the occurrence of certain risks, incl. the risk of serious bodily injury (including broken limbs, bruises, abrasions, etc.) as a result of slipping, tripping, falling from a height, contact with sports and entertainment equipment and equipment, an observer or another participant in controversial entertainment activities and etc. Adherence to these safety instructions is of utmost importance to ensure a safe environment at the Center.

Climbers and all other users of the Center must:

Not to use the climbing equipment if it is contraindicated by a doctor or other specialist or if they have the slightest doubt that they are physically and mentally healthy or in a suitable condition (e.g. due to the use of drugs, narcotics or alcohol)

Not to overestimate their climbing skills, abilities and experience, as this can lead to the occurrence of trauma and injury. Uncontrolled falls can result in injury.

Continually assess the risks their behavior poses to themselves and others.

To turn to the instructors in all cases when they do not know or hesitate how to approach a given situation. Notify the Center staff of any identified problem or irregularity related to the climbing walls and equipment, incl. when they notice inappropriate or dangerous behavior on the part of a visitor or an employee of the Center.

Be considerate of other visitors to the Center and not contribute to exposing them to unnecessary risks.

Not to unreasonably distract other climbers or Center staff.

Do not climb or stand in the area immediately below or near another climber.

Not to climb when there is another climber or visitor to the Center in the area below or in close proximity to them.

When climbing a wall, to tie the rope directly to the seat with a correct and tight knot, and at the slightest hesitation to turn to an instructor.

Stay clear of climbing areas when not climbing Follow all instructions (including instructions from instructors) for safe use of the facilities and the Center, incl. those contained in the warning and information plates, signatures and/or warnings.

Bottom belay climbing

For "lead" climbing you need a suitable dynamic rope. Attach the rope to the loops placed on the wall. Use all loops on the line that is most appropriate for the route you are climbing and do not pass them before you turn them on. Loops are only changed or removed by staff. If you have additional questions or doubts, please contact the instructor closest to you.

Top belay climbing

The top belayed climbing routes are already roped. Do not try to move or remove them. Use the most suitable rope for the selected line. If in doubt, seek help from an instructor.

AutoBelay (auto insurance system)

Before using the autobelay, make sure that you have correctly positioned your seat. At the slightest hesitation, seek help from an instructor. Check that the carabiner is attached to the correct seat suspension point and that the coupling is closed. Never climb next to or over the car. Before descending, make sure there are no climbers below you. Push off evenly with your legs during the descent. Try to avoid twisting or rocking. If the autobelay malfunctions while climbing, stop climbing and seek help.

Security Commitment

The rules of the climbing center are not intended to limit the enjoyment of climbing. They are part of the commitment to ensure safe sports conditions. As such, they are non-negotiable and if you are not prepared to comply with them you should immediately stop using the climbing equipment and leave the Centre. In the event that a climber or user of the Center does not follow these safety instructions (Including instructions from Center staff), Center staff have the right to remove him from the Center or suspend his access to the climbing facilities. Every climber and user of the Center is committed not to create unnecessary risks for themselves and others. If a climber or visitor does not know how to use a facility or equipment, they should immediately contact one of the Center's instructors.
